

North Bay • Tule Elk
Nature Tour – Half Day

Welcome to Blue Waters Kayaking along the northern peninsula of Tomales Bay! We invite both experienced and first time kayakers alike to join us on this beautiful paddle. Tomales Bay is a Picturesque coastal inlet that is protected from the sea by the Point Reyes Peninsula. It is also home to herds of Tule Elk, once common to the greater San Francisco Bay Area. It is not uncommon to see osprey, harbor seals, pelicans, bat rays and other species of wildlife including Tule Elk from the water.

Itinerary: We will meet at the Miller Park Boat Launch (at Nick's Cove). After organizing gear and reviewing basic kayaking instructions and safety procedures, we'll launch our boats and paddle across the bay. We'll explore along the Pt. Reyes shoreline, enjoying the wildlife and beautiful scenery. We'll go rain or shine.

Equipment: Our double kayaks track well, are difficult to capsize and are easy to maneuver. Life jackets, paddles, and spray skirts are provided.

What to bring:

Come prepared for variable weather. Bring clothes that reflect your degree of sensitivity to heat and cold.

- On the half day tour we will not stop for lunch, please bring a high-energy snack.
- 1 liter (minimum) water bottle
- Sunglasses, sun screen & lip balm
- Hat with sun visor
- Wool or fleece hat (for cold days)
